Messrs. J. N. Harris & Co.:

Gentlemen:—The confidence I have in Perry Davis'
Pain Kille. as a remedy for Colds. Coughs, Burns Sprains, and kheumatism, for the cure of which have successfully used it, induces me to cheerfully recommend its virtnesto others.

A few months ago I had recourse to it to destroy a felon; although I had never heard of its being used for that purpose; but having suffered intensely from a forager one, and having no other remedy at hand, I applied the Pinin Killer freely for ahout fifteen minutes at evening, and repeated the application very briefly the next morning, which entirely destroyed the lelon, and increased my confidence in the utility of the remedy.

Yours truly,

Minister of the Wesleyan Methodist Church.

But it was nrgued by these Senators, that events might transpire making it necessary to convene the General Assembly in the interval, and the Governor-being allied in sympathy with the Confederate States-might, and probably would, fuil to issue his proclumation. "They lacked confidence in the Governor." "He did not represent the wishes of the people;" and the Senutor from Mason de-nounced him as a perfidious traitor, unworthy the trust reposed in him; and urged the pas-sage of the hill, for the reason that it would strip the Governor of one of his constitutional functions, and bestow it on those who could be trusted by the people.

Mr. Grover said the proposition was to take from the Governor a constitutional power, and vest it in the two Speakers-tomake to tle Governors; and, ns though they might fuil to earry out the behests of party—a result, in his judgment, not much to be feared-it was provided "that in their absence, two members of the Senate and three of the House

Thus was the state to have, in place of a constitutional Executive-a brace of Gorrnors-and in case of their failure or refusul to act, a strolling company of five. Would it not be better, also, to confer on them the pardoning power, so that in times like these, when men are arrested for thinking treason, upon conviction, n Governor could be at hand in the precinct to exercise executive elemency?

A distinguished Senator but yesterday asserted on this floor, "that Executive vetoes must cense;" "that the people would not much longer submit;" and in case of a persistence, the Governor would hear from those whom he represented. A distinguished member of the other house, because the Governor had thought proper, in the exercise of n high constitutional prerogative, to veto a little resolution which that member had offered in an editorial in his own political newspaper, announced the next morning that when the war begun in Kentucky, the Governor should be the first one shot; that Kentucky would tolerate no Claib. Jacksons. And now the Senator from Mason, a man venerable for his age and experience, and one of the framers of the Constitution, proposes to strip the Executive of a constitutional right, because "the per-fidious traitor" cannot be trusted by the party in power. Sir, what is meant by all this? Does it signify despotism? And, if need be,

Has it come to this, that the Executive of a sovereign State, for the exercise of a great constitutional prerogative; for claiming during a reign of terror—before which the French revolution paled—to be a man; and being such, to brenst the storm of popular prejudice and passion, by the exercise of constitutional functions, is to be thus indirectly shorn of his power by a direct violation of the Constitution, and taunted, derided, scoffed at afterwards? We are in the midst of startling events! The pillurs of the government are fast ernnibling to earth, and grave Senntors are to be found at such a time, who, in-tend of upholding the frame work of constitutional liberty, are, with impious hands, aiding in the unholy purpose of razing it to the dust. Even standing in this Senate Chamber, day after day, while an armed soldiery is almost within hearing of the Capital, and protected behind the musked batteries of the hurling at the Executive of the State their little shot of grape and canister, and oceasionally throwing into his eamp "a

It is unhecoming the dignity of the Senute thus to fritter away time in assailing a man whom the Legislature dare not arraign in the mode prescribed by the Constitution.

If he has failed in the discharge of duty, the Constitution provides a remedy. Had the counsels of the Governor prevailed, had the Legislature carried out the policy which he had ecommended, that of an honest neutrality. urging the removal of the Federal and Confederate troops, the iron heel of war would not now be upon us, but peace, rather, with nll its attendant blessings.

The Legislature choose to take another ourse. Civil war is the result. Because the Governor, from the first, and persistently, has opposed the involvement of the State in all the horrors of a bloody revolution; because he is not sufficiently supple to change his political opinions as frequently as certain members of this floor with all the rancor of party malevo lence. Yet the Governor still survives. The Rebol Camp in Owon County, Ky .--- Correspondence Between General Anderson and Humphrey Marshall.

The following correspondence relative to the rebel camp in Owen county, which camp has attracted much attention in this vicinity, has been handed us for publication. It will be seen that Humphrey Marshall, in reply to he kind and conciliatory letter by General anderson, returned a very saucy and insolent ply, seeking to justify his action, and that liberal offers to him is clemency thrown away. We presume Humphrey will soon join Breckinridge in Virginia, if he is not taken by the United States authorities .- Cin. Enq.

You and General Anderson both rest under misapprehension as to my position here. I hold no military commission; I command no military force; I am not encamped with any body of men. I have consented simply to this: If the people wish to drill, and for purpose to form a camp, I will encamp with them and instruct them for such length of time as may be mutually convenient. The said act of the General Assembly is as follows:

Resolutions providing for the peace and quiet of the citizens of this Commonwealth.

WHEREAS, The people of Kentucky have, from the beginning, ardently desired and still cherish the hope that they may not be involved in the unnatural, prevailing civil strife that Kentucky is now, as she ever has been, willing, and ready to interpose her friendily mediation in adjusting terms of peace and re-concilintion alike honorable and just to all: but as her wishes to mediate and restore harmony may not avail at present, and it is desirable that the people in the meantime should act in harmony, and be at peace among themselves, so that if they shall be involved in war, they will as far as possible relieve and pallinte its calamities; therefore Resolved by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, That if collisions between hostile armies shall take place within our territory, that it is most earnestly recommended to the people of Kentucky not to engage in said strife amongst themselves, on account of differences of political opinions; that it is the duty of the people to be obedi ent to the civil authorities, and respect in times of war as well as pence, all the rights guaranteed to every citizen by the Constitution and laws of the lnnd, that all good citizens however they may differ in political opinons, should unite in protecting each other in their rights, of life, liberty, and property against all and every invasion thereof by unlawful raids, mobs, marauding bands or othe evil disposed persons, and aid the civil au thorities in arresting all such persons and bringing them before the courts for trial.

Resolved, That we, the Representatives of the present General Assembly hereby pledge the State have insolently prescribed the conditions upon which they will withdraw, thus insulting the dignity of the State by demanding terms to which Kentucky cannot listen without dishonar; therefore,

1. Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, That the invaders must be expelled; inasmuch as there are now in Kentucky Federal troops assembled for the purpose of preserving the tran-quility of the State, and of defending and protecting the people of Kentucky in the peaceful enjoyment of their lives and property, it is-2. Further resolved, That General Robert

Anderson, a native Kentuckian, who has been appointed to the command of the Department of Cumberland, be requested to take instant duty and honor require shall be used to expel the invaders from the soil of Kentucky, no citizen shall be molested on account of his political opinions; that no citizens' property shall be taken or confiscated because such opinious, nor shall any slave be set free by any military commander, and that all peaceable citizens and their families are entipenceable citizens and their families are enti-tled to, and shall receive the fullest protection the grocery line of the best quality and attair prices. of the Government in the enjoyment of their lives, their liberties and their property

4. Resolved, That His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, be requested to give all the aid in his power to nccomplish the end desired by these resolutions, and that he call out so much of the military force of the State under his command, as may be necessary therefor, and that he place the same under the command of Gen. Thomas L.

5. Resolved, That the patriotism of every Kentuckian is invoked, and is confidently relied upon to give active aid in the defense of the Common wealth.

Have this day been passed by both Houses of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, the Governor's objections thereto to the contrary notwithstanding, and are theremy proclamation, enjoining all officers and citizens of this State to render obedience to all the requirements of said recolutions. the requirements of said resolutions, and in Gunsmithing Business. obedience thereto.
